Dear Parents and Carers,

We are delighted to write to you as we begin this exciting new chapter for our schools. As you know, Garton on The Wolds Primary CE VC Primary School and Barmby Moor CE Primary School have now joined together to form a federation. This partnership marks an important step in strengthening our provision, sharing best practice, and continuing to offer the very best education and support for every child across both school communities.

One of the key parts of this new structure is our federated governing body. The governing body will play an essential role in setting the strategic direction of the federation, ensuring high standards, and supporting the leadership teams across both schools.

Our governing body is made up of parents, staff and community members who bring a mix of skills, experience and care for both schools. We are pleased to introduce our newly appointed governors:

Mr Shaun Williamson, Chair of Governors, Local Authority and Child Protection and Safeguarding Governor.

Committees: Finance and Personnel; Buildings, Premises, Health & Safety.

Mrs Emma Desmond - Vice Chair of Governors, Co-opted and Educational Visits Governor.

Committees: Curriculum and Policy.

Mr Jamie Baxter, Executive Headteacher.

continued success of the federation and ensure that the interests of all pupils remain central to every decision.

Over the coming term, governors will be visiting both schools, meeting staff and pupils, and getting to know our communities. We look forward to working closely with parents and carers and will keep you informed of our progress and any opportunities to engage with the governing body.

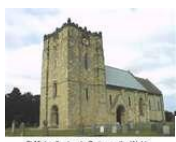

Thank you for your ongoing support, and we are excited about the future we will build together as one federation.

Yours sincerely,

Shaun Williamson
