

Personal, Social and Emotional Development – End of Year Expectations
FS1 Lower	FS1 Upper	FS2
I can usually share with my friends. I can usually take turns. I can separate from my grown up. I can say how I am feeling. I can demonstrate friendly behaviour and make friends. I can begin to show my independence within the class.	I can share with my friends and take turns. I can talk about feelings using words like happy, sad, and worried and consider other people's feelings. I can be confident in a range of situations with a range of people. I can use the toilet independently. I can make healthy food choices about food. I can be helpful and show responsibility.	I can show and understand my own feelings and be aware of others. I can regulate my behaviour and impulses accordingly. I can follow instructions given to me. I can understand the expectations within the classroom and beyond. I can persevere even when it gets challenging. I can explain the reasons for rules for right and wrong and behave accordingly. I can get myself changed for PE independently including zips and buttons. I can play cooperatively and take turns with others.