

Literacy – End of Year Expectations
FS1 Lower	FS1 Upper	FS2
I can recognise my own name I can hear sounds within the environment I can begin to count and clap syllables I can begin to recognise words with same initial letter. I can give meanings to the marks I make.	I can be able to orally blend. I can recognise some letters. I can write some of my name. I can engage in extended conversations about stories learning new vocabulary.	I can re-tell stories and narrative using own words and a range of vocabulary. I can recognise and use at least 10 diagraphs within my reading and writing. I can read aloud simple sentences. I can write simple sentences that others can read. I can re-read my sentence to check that it makes sense. I can form most of my letters correctly. I can use capital letters and full stops in my writing.