

Understanding of the World - History – End of Year Expectations
FS1 Lower	FS1 Upper	FS2
I can begin to make sense of their own life story and family's history. I can say who I am and who I live with. I can talk about any pets that I may have. I can talk about some members of their family.	I can make sense of their own life story and family's history. I can say who I am and who I live with adding extra details. I can talk at length about any pets that they may have, I can talk at length about their family members.	I can comment on photos from the past e.g. Christmas in school, photos from Nursery I can compare their toys with toys from the past. I can compare and contrast characters from stories, including figures from the past I can talk about events that occur during the day. I can comments on pictures of experiences in their own life "this was me at the park..."